

taste of the south

AUTHENTICALLY SOUTHERN, ALWAYS DELICIOUS

March/April, 2016
CIRC: 100,000

AND ASPARAGUS
CASSEROLE page 70

THE FOODIE travel

118

LOCAL FAVORITES

PLACE to EAT DISHES
to SAVOR

SNOB

////// SOUTHERN FLAVORS

Not far from Minero, you'll find a Charleston favorite, SNOB (Slightly North of Broad). Chef Frank Lee and his staff promise "comforting favorites and surprising discoveries," and they aren't kidding: I had a pork belly bánh mì that was absolutely to die for. It was like a delectable deconstructed po' boy, and that's comfort food at its best. Their express lunch rings in at under $15, making it a must-stop on my list.

APRIL 2016 vol 13, issue 2
fthesouthmagazine.com

0 11 09281 02873 4

DISPLAY UNTIL APRIL 19, 2016